Reference: New Mexico Corrections Department wins Quality New Mexico Adobe Recognition

Date of Release: April 22, 2013

Details: Quality New Mexico has awarded the New Mexico Corrections Department with the Adobe Recognition Award for the 2013 Quality New Mexico Summit.

The NMCD originally applied for the Quality New Mexico Adobe Assessment as a means for better examining its functions and creating more challenging goals for achieving sustainable performance excellence. Adobe assessment will now allow senior Quality New Mexico examiners to assess where the department currently is in their management planning and where the organization is aspiring to go with its services.

Secretary of New Mexico Corrections, Gregg Marcantel, thanked staff for their dedication to improving New Mexico Corrections for the present and the future.

"The conveyance of the QNM Adobe Award is public recognition of the work and dedication you have committed to regarding our quality public safety service journey. Quite simply, this recognition is tangible proof of your courage to lean forward and take the necessary risks for defining a better future for the department. " – Secretary Gregg Marcantel

As always, NMCD is committed to the safety and well-being of the people of New Mexico by doing the right thing, always.

Thank you.
